What do you know about Christmas?

Christmas also written Xmas and called Crimbo in British English, is celebrated all around the world. Its traditional colors are green and red.

It's in the winter season for most countries, but not in the southern hemisphere like in Australia where it's the summer season!

Christmas day is on December 25th. So, December 24th is Christmas Eve. In the United Kingdom it is followed by boxing day, on December 26th.

Boxing Day is also a holiday when people give to the poor and go shopping because it's the beginning of the sales season.

For the British people, other traditions include pulling the crackers and eating a Christmas pudding for dessert.

Added to father Christmas, one symbol of Christmas for kids is Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer.

Do you know about the giant Christmas tree that the Rockefeller Center in New York City makes each year?
